For your protection, the following disclosures are required by state law and are based on the state where you live:

If you live in the states of Alaska or Oregon, the following statement applies to you:

A person who knowingly and with intent to injure, defraud, or deceive an insurance company, files a claim containing false, incomplete, or misleading information may be prosecuted under state law.

If you live in the states of Arizona or New Jersey, the following statement applies to you:

A person who knowingly presents a false or fraudulent claim for payment of a loss is subject to criminal and civil penalties.

If you live in the states of Arkansas, Louisiana, Maryland, or Rhode Island the following statement applies to you:

Any person who knowingly presents a false or fraudulent claim for payment of a loss or benefit or knowingly presents false information in an application for insurance is guilty of a crime and may be subject to fines and confinement in prison.

If you live in the state of California, the following statement applies to you:

Any person who knowingly presents a false or fraudulent claim for the payment of a loss is guilty of a crime and may be subject to fines and confinement in state prison.

If you live in Colorado, the following statement applies to you:

It is unlawful to knowingly provide false, incomplete, or misleading facts or information to an insurance company for the purpose of defrauding or attempting to defraud the company. Penalties may include imprisonment, fines, denial of insurance, and civil damages. Any insurance company or agent of an insurance company who knowingly provides false, incomplete or misleading facts or information to a policy holder or claimant for the purpose of defrauding or attempting to defraud the policy holder or claimant with regard to a settlement or award payable from insurance proceeds shall be reported to the Colorado Division of Insurance within the Department of Regulatory Agencies.

If you live in Delaware, Florida, Idaho, Indiana or Oklahoma, the following statement applies to you: WARNING:

Any person who knowingly and with intent to injure, defraud, or deceive any insurer files a statement of claim or application containing any false, incomplete, or misleading information is guilty of a felony. In Florida, it is a felony of the third degree.

If you live in the District of Columbia, Tennessee or Virginia the following statement applies to you:

WARNING: It is a crime to provide false or misleading information to an insurer for the purpose of defrauding the insurer or any other person. Penalties include imprisonment and/or fines. In addition, an insurer may deny insurance benefits if false information materially related to a claim was provided by the applicant.

If you live in New Hampshire, the following statement applies to you:

Any person who, with a purpose to injure, defraud, or deceive any insurance company, files a statement of claim containing any false, incomplete, or misleading information is subject to prosecution and punishment for insurance fraud, as provided in RSA 638:20.

To avoid unnecessary delays, be sure all parts of the Claim Statement are completed according to the instructions, and DO NOT SEPARATE the pages.

Assurant Employee Benefits is the brand name for insurance products underwritten by Union Security Insurance Company.

Any person who knowingly presents a false or fraudulent claim for the payment of a loss is guilty of a crime and may be subject to fines and confinement in state prison.

If you live in a state other than mentioned above, the following statement applies to you:

Any person who knowingly and with intent to defraud any insurance company or other person files an application for insurance or statement of claim containing any materially false information or conceals, for the purpose of misleading, information concerning any fact material thereto commits a fraudulent insurance act, which is a crime and subjects such person to criminal and civil penalties.

Please read the following instructions carefully for proper completion of the attached Long Term Disability Claim Statement. If this is not fully completed, the Claim Statement will be returned for completion.

Do not separate the pages of this Claim Statement. Additional physician's statements may be obtained from your Regional Benefit Center or by copying the physician's statement included in this statement. Attach any additional physician's statements to the Claim Statement.

After the Employer Section has been fully completed, forward the entire statement to the claimant for completion of the Claimant Statement. If the claimant has returned to work or if the claim is for pregnancy, Part 2 of the Claimant's Statement does not need to be completed. After the Employer and Claimant Statements are fully completed, forward the entire statements to the attending physician(s) for completion of the Physician's Statement. This must be the physician(s) who rendered treatment at the onset of this disability.

Instructions for completion of the Employer's sections follow:

Employer Claim Statement—Part 1

Please indicate at the top of the form whether or not this is a new claim.

- 1.–9. Self-explanatory.
10. Effective date of the claimant's LTD coverage.
11. The last day the claimant actually worked at his/her regular occupation, and the total number of hours worked on his/her last day.
12. The number of days per week and the number of hours per day the claimant was regularly scheduled to work prior to his/her disability.
13. Self-explanatory.
14. This question should be completed if your company had LTD coverage through a different carrier, immediately prior to your Assurant Employee Benefits' coverage. If applicable, provide us with the claimant's effective and termination dates under the prior plan.
15. Any other coverages the claimant has with Assurant Employee Benefits. (i.e., Life, Medical, Dental, etc.)
- 16.–17. If the claimant has returned to work, advise us of his/her current work schedule.
18. Advise us of the outcome of your discussion(s) with the claimant, and if any reasonable accommodations were able to be made to allow the claimant to return to work.
19. The claimant's basic monthly earnings as of the determination date indicated in your LTD policy. If the claimant receives any bonuses, commissions or other unusual compensation, review the Policy Definition of Monthly Earnings and provide supporting documentation.
- 20.–22. LTD benefits may be taxable. These questions are essential for us to make that determination.
23. Self-explanatory.
24. For any source of income marked, please attach payroll records, award notices, denial notices or any other available documentation.
